

scottish universities insight institute

mobilising knowledge for a better Scotland

The Use of Assistive Technologies in Social Care

Symposium Day 3: 17th October, 2013

09.30 Registration: tea/coffee available

10.00 Introduction

10.10 Themes emerging from the previous symposium and recent research

Andrew Eccles, University of Strathclyde

10.45 Securing Privacy. Technology and the (re)articulation of values

Dr Ike Kamphof, University of Maastricht

11.15 Break for tea/coffee/ discussion

11.45 Ageing, the new disaster; telecare, the promised solution. Findings from the EFORTT project.

Dr. Maggie Mort & Dr. Celia Roberts, University of Lancaster

12.15 Discussion on the preceding papers

13.00 Lunch

14.00 A participative, 'practice-centred' approach to Electronic Patient Records and telemedicine

Dr. Mary Darking, University of Brighton

14.30 Operational issues in using Assistive Technologies: a local government perspective

Michael Gillespie, Local Government

15.00 Discussion on the preceding papers

15.30 Tea/coffee/discussion

15.50 The potential for real time monitoring in daily life

Dr. Arjan Buis, University of Strathclyde

...../

16.10 Discussion on applications of monitoring technologies

16.40 Closing remarks

Andrew Eccles, University of Strathclyde

Scottish Universities Insight Institute
Collins Building, 22 Richmond St, Glasgow G1 1XQ
www.scottishinsight.ac.uk