The image shows a woman in a yellow and red patterned dress pointing at a wall covered with various permaculture design drawings, maps, and notes. The wall is a collage of work from the course, including concept maps, side views, and final designs. The text on the wall includes the website, prices in UGX and GBP, the course name 'People, Earth Fair Share Care', and the dates 'May 21st June 3rd 2017'. Logos for 'permaculture design courses landscapes projects sector39', 'Permaculture ASSOCIATION', and 'Permaculture Research Institute Of Uganda' are also visible.
