

Policing Digital Futures: Collaborative knowledge exchange symposium

11th December 2019, Edinburgh

Programme

Time	Topic	Speaker/Chair
0915	Welcome	Megan O'Neill
0930	Summary of Findings: Nordforsk 'Eyes Online' Project	Megan O'Neill, Burkhard Shafer, Amy Humphrey & Anna Leppänen
1000	Setting the current context: Ethics, and digital ethics in Scotland	Matt Richards, Robert Coburn, James Sinclair, Allyson MacVean
1115	Presentation: Data-driven Intelligence Oversight: Updates for Accountability Pioneers	Thorsten Wetzling
1130	Break
1145	Presentation: The West Midlands Police and Crime Commissioner and West Midlands Police data ethics committee: personal thoughts from the Chair	Marion Oswald
1200	Roundtable: Extending and Embedding Ethics: How can current models of ethical policing be extended proactively in the use of emerging online and digital investigative opportunities?	Allyson MacVean
1300	Lunch (Provided)
1400	Presentation: Ethical issues in digital policing: emerging trends	Katerina Hadjimatheou
1415	Parallel session: Deliberative Democracy How could principles of deliberative democracy help to widen inclusion in, and engagement with, debates on policing adoption and application of online/other digital investigative opportunities?	Nick Bland
	Parallel session: Governance How do we ensure the accountability and transparency of policing practice remains relevant in this rapidly developing field?	Charles Raab
1515	Break
1530	Presentation: Auditing discrimination in policing technology	Eric Kind
1545	Closing discussion: Summary of learning and next steps	Giles Herdale
1615	Thanks, and Close	Megan O'Neill