Supporting young adults whose first language is not English

Families coming to Scotland with children in the senior phase

Edinburgh Community Learning and Development partnership working with schools

https://youtu.be/cWvgaRbXNyU

Supporting young adults whose first language is not English

Unaccompanied asylum seeking children

Insufficient language levels to access a school curriculum at National 5 or Higher level, or to study at NQ/NC level

May not even be literate in their own languages

Case Study – working with young unaccompanied asylum seekers and refugees

https://education.gov.scot/improvement/practiceexemplars/Working%20with%20young%20unaccompanied%20asylum%20seekers%20and%20refugees

Document title

Transforming lives through learning

Supporting families with children whose first language is not English

ESOL family learning

- Can help parents become more involved in a child's school life
- Can help parents understand the Scottish education system and how it works
- Can help parents with children who are transitioning from nursery to primary school

Education Scotland Resources for Gaelic Medium and Learner Education

There are four Education Scotland websites that have resources to support Gaelic:

- Corporate website (https://education.gov.scot/)
- National Improvement Hub (https://education.gov.scot/improvement)
- Parentzone Scotland (https://education.gov.scot/parentzone)
- National Qualifications (https://education.gov.scot/nationalqualifications)
- Please also see Glow (https://glowconnect.org.uk/)

Transforming lives through learning

Gaelic - 🗸

On the Corporate website you will find:

Arrangements for inspecting Gaelic; GLP and Quality and Improvement in Scottish Education Reports and blogs.

Information on Legislation and Curriculum for Excellence.

National Improvement Hub (NIH)

	EDUCATION S	SCOTLAND PARE	NTZONE NATIONAL IMPRO	VEMENT HUB NATIONAL Q	UALIFICATIONS	GLOW	f 🎔 😐
	S National Improvement Hub						al Improvement H 🗸 🔎	1
	About NIH	EEF toolkit	Learning resources	Practice exemplars	Research	Self-evaluation
NIH
National Improvement Hub
	Find a resource, article or exemplars on improving outcomes for learners. Type a keyword, title or description into the field to start your search.
		Gaelic			×	Search

On the NIH you will find resources to support improvement in GME, for example: Self- evaluation frameworks; Advice on Gaelic Education; Benchmarks; Conference materials; Briefings on Gaelic Education; Case studies; 1+2 Support and more.

National Improvement Hub (NIH)

The page for the Briefings on Gaelic Education is useful to keep you up-to-date. As well as briefings, it also has links to a GME and GLE blog.

We publish briefings four times a year. These include information on resources which are available from our partners.

Please subscribe for an e-mail alert to these here (https://edscot.org.uk/p/LQE-39I/subscribe).

National Qualifications (NQ)

On the NQ site, you will find learning resources for: Gaelic (Learners); Gaidhlig; subjects delivered through Gaelic.

Parentzone Scotland

- On the Parentzone site you will find: Narrative on GME;
- Information to support parents in choosing GME; Information on supporting children's education;
- Information on National Improvement Framework, particularly on how data is collected on children's progress.