

scottish universities insight institute

mobilising knowledge for a better Scotland

Poverty, attainment and wellbeing: Making a difference to the lives of children and young people.

Seminar 3 Day 2: The Implications for Policy and Practice

Thursday 7th of March, Technology & Information Centre, University of Strathclyde, 99 George St, Glasgow G1 1RD

- | | |
|-------------------|--|
| 9.30am-10.00am | Registration and refreshments |
| 10.00am-10.05am | Welcome and introduction to Seminar
Dr Joan Mowat, University of Strathclyde |
| 10.05am-10.15am | Reflections on Seminar 3 Day 1
Dr Gale MacLeod |
| 10.15am-10.20am | Introduction to Professor Roger Slee
Dr Joan Mowat |
| 10.20am-11.10am | Keynote Address: Putting inclusion at the heart of 'closing the gap': The fragility of inclusive education in an age of exclusion
Professor Roger Slee, University of South Australia |
| 11.10am-11.30am | Group reflection on keynote address and questions for Professor Slee |
| 11.30am – 11.50am | Refreshments |
| 11.50am-1.00pm | Discussion groups: The implications for policy and practice |
| 1.00pm-2.00pm | Lunch |
| 2.00pm-3.00pm | Keynote Address: The Scottish Attainment Challenge: progress and future directions
Maria Walker OBE, Strategic Director, Education Scotland |
| 3.00pm-3.50pm | Panel Discussion
Facilitated by Ken Muir, CEO General Teaching Council for Scotland

Professor John McKendrick, Glasgow Caledonian
Professor Roger Slee, University of South Australia
Tina Stones, Head Teacher, Highland Region
Maria Walker OBE, Strategic Director, Education Scotland
Dr Geetha Marcus, University of Glasgow |
| 3.50pm-4.00pm | Plenary and Expressions of Appreciation
Dr Joan Mowat, University of Strathclyde |